

COURSE: ROMAN AND MEDIEVAL BARCELONA

Language	Spanish
Language level	Any level
Teaching hours	10h
Credits	1 ECTS

Discover the secrets of the city

The objective of this three-week course of cultural immersion is to discover, learn and Understand the stages and periods that made the Roman Barcelona —known as “Barcino” — the Mediterranean, cosmopolitan and modern city that we know today.

The syllabus combines classroom sessions (1 day a week) with city tours (2 days a week) for the students to understand both the historic evolution of the city and the artistic movements that shaped its current physiognomy. Due to the course topic’s extension, this course can be related to disciplines such as History, Art History and Town Planning.

The lectures will be held in Spanish, adapting the level to the students ‘level.

The course lasts 30h, corresponding to 4 ECTS, although the student has also the possibility to take it by weeks (10h or 20h)

1 week

First week- Roman and Medieval Barcelona (5th to 7th July)

1. Tuesday – From 16.00 to 19.15

Course presentation, introduction to the city and Guided tour around the University’s historical building (national monument)

Tour around the Roman Barcelona and the City’s museum of History

2. Wednesday - From 16.00 to 19.15

Barcino, the Roman City. Barcelona’s growth during the Medieval Ages

3. Thursday - From 16.00 to 19.15

Tour around the Gothic Barcelona, the Cathedral and Santa María del Mar

Certificate of attendance and evaluation

At the end of the course, the students will receive a certificate with the total of hours taken and the corresponding ECTS.

Evaluation

The students that need an evaluation will receive a certificate with the hours taken, the corresponding ECTS and a final grade with the following percentages:

80% Writing

20% Assessment

*The price of the examination/writing is included in the course price if the student also registers for the language course.

